Verse 1

D C G A
Traveling down the road of grace, bound for the promised land,

Where life and light shall never fade, in the kingdom of the Lamb.
D A D A
Skies so crystal clear, colors bright hearts their cheer, no shadow's gloom to dismay, in the Lamb's light is perfect day.

C... D... C... D...
My eyes have not yet to behold, the streets made of purest gold, but such a land there is I know, in the Word of the Lamb I am told.

D C G A
Traveling down this road of grace, many dangers lie in the way,
D C G A
the lion seeks to devour me, the serpent to lead astray.
D A D A
Wolves lurking from behind, a wounded pilgrim there to find,
D A D A...
snares in my path obscure, my feet would they allure.
C D... C... D...
Night so black and deadly cold, piercing the depths of my soul,
C... D... C A D
fiery darts of evil hurled, by the wicked prince of this world.

Verse 3

D C G A
Traveling down this road of grace, bound for the promised land, in the armor of the King of Kings, having done all to stand.
D C G A
D A D A
My loins girt about with truth, a breastplate of righteousness,
D A D A...
on my Gospel shod feet I stand, with the shield of faith in hand.
C... D... C... D...
Salvation's helmet on my head, the sword of the Spirit is my bread,
C... D... C A D
praying always and in every place, as I travel this road of grace".
